PREFACE

In the preparation of this yearbook we have tried to collect the highlights of the school year. The victories we have reached in education and other activities are as nearly complete as possible in this book. We have probably made some mistakes in collecting and publishing this, but yet we have tried to make it a memory of the school year.

For some, this year in school may mean the final victory, for others, the victory in one lap of schooling. We, however, hope that everyone pictured or designated in this yearbook will have the opportunity to reach victories.

Nor any change of light;
Nor sound of waters shaken,
Nor any sound or sight;

Nor days nor things diurnal;
Only the sleep eternal

DEDICATION

We dedicate this yearbook first, to our faculty who have helped us to win our victories and to prepare us for the future battles, and second, to our parents for their patience and sacrifice in making possible our education.

HISTORY OF WHEATFIELD SCHOOL

In 1890 the citizens of Wheatfield, Indiana constructed a small frame building and in 1906 built a brick one to which an addition was made in 1914, this too was inadequate, so in 1931, when the town school was changed to include the township students, eight classrooms, and a new gymnasium, with two shower rooms as well as a new heating system were added.

The commercial and the home economics departments were added to the curricula in 1934 and the agriculture department in 1936. Then in 1940 the science-room was equipped.

SENIOR CLASS

Six years ago the graduates of 1942 started the long march in Wheatfield High School in the quest of knowledge.

When our august seniors began this journey back in 1935 as seventh graders, the following students were enrolled: Roy Jones, Ray Bagnall, Elsie Martin, Marjorie Cornell, Betty Sprague, Vance Williams, Betty Brown, Marjorie McGovern, Paul Scott, Helen Gulbranson, Otis Burris, Raymond Dattlinger, Louis Sayne, Roberta Stevenson, Marjorie Lowery, Henry Gorter, Walter Hohn, Maurice Sprugeon, Margaret Wood, Lloyd Lintner, Lillian Calhoun, Jr. Whitte, and Patsy Alsip.

After two long years of study in the seventh and eighth grades came the time when they became full members of W. H. S. as freshmen. Of the 24 seventh graders 20 remained to enroll as freshmen. Margaret Wood, Roberta Stevenson, Betty Sprague, and Patsy Alsip had withdrawn from this class, but there were seventeen new students from other townships to add to the roll. These included, Bill Dunn, Jack Hoeflerlin, Marlese Griggs, Dallas King, Viola Miller, Leonard Nagel, Walter Parkhurst, Joe Setnor, Donald Snow, David Spencer, Frances Stopp, Winfred Strain, Amy Walker, Homer Woosley, Reba Yeoman, Arlene Zeifuss, and Junior Whitaker.

On October 7, came the initiation. Somehow, the freshmen survived. They won the subscription contest and were given a party by the losing classes. On January 21, the freshmen presented a play, "Who Gets the Car Tonight". The class held a party on April 17, in the gymnasium.

During the year Marjorie Cornell moved to Valparaiso, while Roberta Stevenson entered from Elwood and Owen Timmons entered from Monterey. The class was saddened during the year by the death of one of its classmates, Marjorie Lowery. During the summer a second member of the class, Homer Woosley, died.

When school started in the fall of 1939, 28 sophomores reported to the assembly. Henry Gorter, Roy Jones, Dallas King, Lloyd Lintner, Viola Miller, Walter Parkhurst, Donald Snow, Frances Stepp, Arlene Zierfuss, and Owen Timmons withdrew from the class. Later in the year Lillian Calhoun withdrew. However, during the year, Felicia Thaez, Devie Nelson, Vera Williams, Margie Hibbs, Harry and John Bierna, and John Daniels, enrolled in the class.

The organization for the class this year was sponsor, Miss Brown; president, Betty Brown; vice president, Vance Williams; secretary, treasurer Walter Hoehn; senators, Ray Bagnall and Otis Burris. The social attractions for the year were a party on February 19, and on March 15, and the initiation of the freshmen on October 6.

The class officers this year were president, Ray Bagnall; vice president, John Horshman; secretary, Roberta Stevenson; treasurer, Walter Hoehn; senators, Marjorie McGovern and Felicia Thaez; as sponsors, Miss Brown and Mr. Laird.

During the junior year, the class sold pop, and candy at the basketball games and held two class parties. The class play, "For Pete's Sake" was presented on March 14. The juniors took the seniors on a trip to Chicago, April 21. They visited places of interest and attended a show.

When the time for the last roundup came in the march through W. H. S. the class started with 36 seniors. Alberto Sammons and Phyllis Haring had

The senior class presented their play, "Hillbilly Courtship" on January 22 to a large and appreciative crowd. On Saturday, April 18, the seniors were guests of the junior class on a class trip to Chicago.

Sunday evening, April 19, the baccalaureate exercises were held. The last chapter in their school life as a class of 1942 was written when the seniors received their diplomas at the commencement exercises on April 21, 1942.

CLASS WILL

We the class of 1942, being in sound mind and body, do hereby will and bequeath to our underclassmen, some of our most cherished possessions.

FIRST: We insist that they take as good care of them as we did. SECOND: We want them to make use of them. THIRD: We want them to remember us, not just as other seniors, but as friends through all the years to come.

WE, THE CLASS OF '42, will and do bequeath, as all the other seniors have done, the gum under our seats and the waste paper in our desks to the janitor. He has worked very hard this year and we are sure he deserves them. To dear old W. H. S., we will leave a copy of our annual. To the juniors, we will our seats in the assembly, old test papers, and history outlines. Each one of the seniors of the class of '42 has a personal gift to some of the underclassmen;

I, LAURA MAE SWART, will my curly hair to Helen Armstrong.

I, John Bierma, will my athletic ability to Blaine Harrington.

I, Joe Setnor, will my ability to rob the cradle to Russel Saltwell.

I, Reba Yeoman, will my small stature to Bill Longstreth; then he won't be too tall for some of the girls.

I, Ray Bagnall, will my fickleness to Walter Misch. It might even help him get a girl.

I, Harry Bierma, will my pretty hair to Orville Rowe.

I, Betty Brown, will my desire to gossip to Gertrude Fees that she may make better conversations.

I, Helen Gulbransen, will my privilege of being absent so much to Donald Stembel.

I, Jack Hocferlin, will my love notes from seventh and eighth graders to Allen Frybort.

1. The purpose of this document is to provide a comprehensive overview of the current status of the project and to identify the key areas for improvement.

2. The project has been initiated in accordance with the approved plan and is currently in the planning phase. The initial findings indicate that the project is on track, but there are several areas that require further investigation.

3. The following table provides a summary of the key findings and recommendations:

Area	Findings	Recommendations
Planning	The project plan is well-defined and includes all necessary components.	Ensure that the plan is updated regularly to reflect changes in the project scope.
Execution	The project is being executed in accordance with the plan, but there are some delays in the timeline.	Identify the causes of the delays and implement measures to prevent them from recurring.
Monitoring	The project is being monitored closely, but there is a need for more frequent communication between the project manager and the stakeholders.	Establish a regular communication schedule and ensure that all stakeholders are kept informed of the project progress.
Closing	The project is nearing completion, but there is a need for a final review to ensure that all objectives have been met.	Conduct a final review of the project and document the lessons learned for future reference.

4. The project manager is responsible for ensuring that the project is completed on time and within budget. The project manager should also ensure that the project is executed in accordance with the approved plan and that all stakeholders are kept informed of the project progress.

5. The project is currently in the planning phase and is expected to be completed by the end of the year. The project manager should ensure that the project is executed in accordance with the approved plan and that all stakeholders are kept informed of the project progress.

I, Pat Barley, will my hillbilly accent I used in the play to Paul Myers.

I, Vance Williams, will my sleepiness to Kenneth Hershman.

I, Bethel Spriggs, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Audra Harrington, and my seat in the assembly and my position as editor of the Echo to Betty Williams.

I, Marjorie McGovern, will my studious nature to Arthur Howard. Maybe then he will have more time to look around.

I, Roberta Stevenson, will my job as feature editor of the Echo to Helen Koehn.

I, Booten Whitaker, will my athletic ability to Ed Sulkowski. Maybe he will make the A team next year.

I, Vera Williams, will my unquestionable ability to use large words in plays to Chic Peregrine. May he use this to the best of his ability.

I, Marleese Griggs, will my hair styles and make up combinations to Joan Drudge. Also my desk is hers; she'll like it I'm sure; maybe someone like Don will sit across the aisle next year!

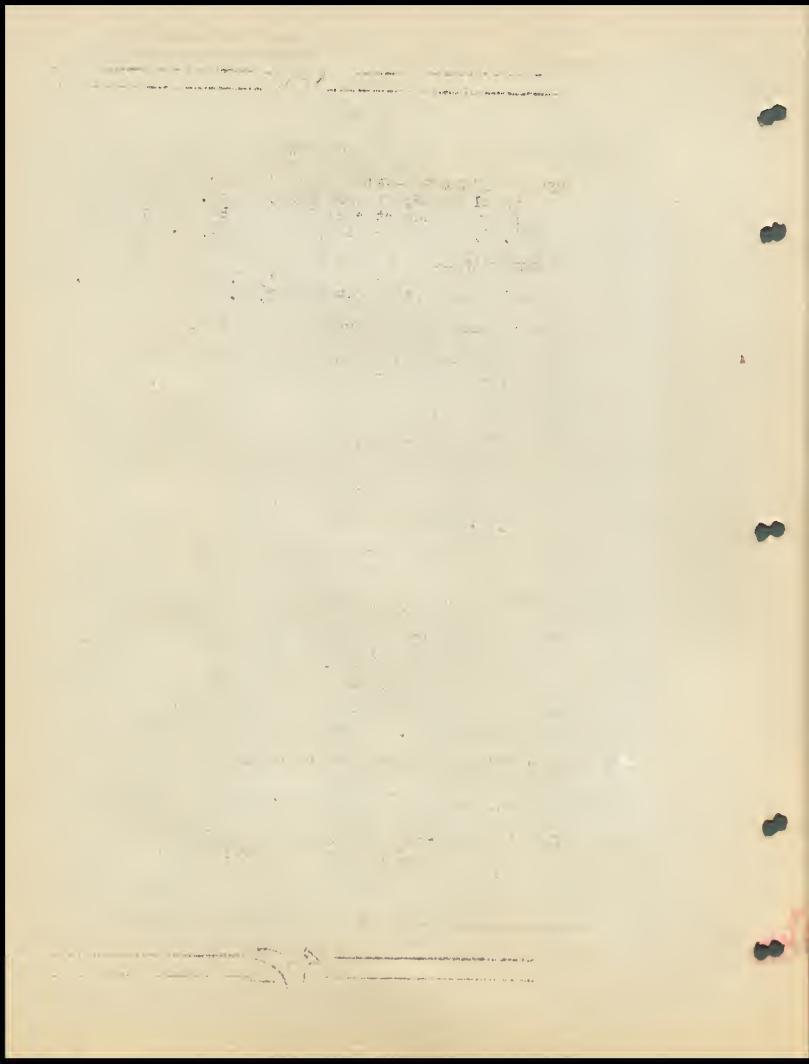

I, Betty Yeoman, will my discarded short romances to Freda Hershman to use with her many started ones already. I'm sure with my aid she'll make a record.

I, Leonard Nagel, will my sophistication and blond wavy hair to Dick Park.

I, Mannie Martin, will and bequeath my ability to wear a beard and to act in plays to Betty Williams, for I think she would then be very popular.

I, Don Olsen, will my ability to chew gum incline, make faces, and make grades without working, to Grant Yeoman. May he carry on my reputation and win with high honor!!

I, Bill Dunn, will my quiet nature to George Lowery, in case he needs it in years to come.

I, David Spencer, will my ability to keep one girl through all those years to Paul Karch. May he never have the trouble I have!

I, Alex Hanowich, will a book, "How to Avoid The Girls", which I intend to write, to Donnie Karch, for, I think he could use a few lessons.

I, Walter Boehm, will the ripped pants I wore in the play to Ivan Potts. He always looks so nice when he comes to school.

I, Elsie Martin, will my ability to fight with a guy and still keep him to Helen Armstrong.

I, Louis Sayne, will my shortness to Norman Williamson. Of course this might handicap him when he is playing basketball or taking his girl out, but it may save his head from bumping into door frames.

I, Margie Hibbs, will my quiet disposition to one Selma Clark. This should make Selma an ideal girl.

I, Paul Scott, will Selma to Carl Pottit until I get back from the navy. I'm sure he will keep her safe.

I, Maurice Spurgeon, will my smile and gum chewing ability to Eddie Burke. That combination should pass him safely through W. E. S.

I, Raymond Duttlinger, will my ability to make the teachers think I'm smarter than I am to Ted Schoettler. Maybe being absent so much won't make any difference.

I, Phyllis Haring, will my height to Dede King. He might add a few more girls to his list if he were tall.

I, John Horshman, will my winning way with seventh grade girls to Elwin Meyers. Maybe he won't even have to have someone else get his dates for him then.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereto subscribed my name and affixed my seal, this 21st day of April, in the year of our Lord, 1942.

CLASS PROPHECY

Ten years from now, here's how 'twill be
As near as we can tell,
For the Class of '42,
Have all fared good and well.

Principal Spencer in W. F. S.
Rules like he liked his work
With Elsie Martin as his wife,
He has no chance to shirk.

Let's stop at the drugstore for a coke
And the new soda fountains to inspect
Vance Williams the druggist has modernized,
For his work we have great respect.

Out at the airport you'll find
Dade Whitaker, and Joe Setnor, too
They give flying instructions every day,
From 9:30 to half past two.

Paul Scott is home from the Navy and
He still has his car,
For his wife, wouldn't part with it
And she rules the family, by far.

Back in W. H. S. we find
Marjorie McGovern as Latin teacher
Then in the church on the hill we discover
Pat Barley has made a fine preacher.

The last we heard of Helen Gulbransen
As a movie star her fame was a wow,
After her first picture she married the director
And he's taking directions now.

In the senior class play of "42"
Walter Boehm overcame his stage fright,
Now in New York City he's a great actor,
And he stars in plays night after night.

John and Harry Bierma, the brothers
In Chicago, they earned all their money
Great hardware stores are owned by them now
And their lives are bright and sunny.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

Turn on the radio to "The World's Great Singers"
And hear Donald Olson's great voice
For they discovered him as he sang in school
And now over his fame he rejoice.

Louis Sayne is still in the Navy, you know,
He will be for ten more years
Then he'll return to his old home town
And be greeted with happy cheers.

Ray Bagnall came back to W. H. S.
To be a teacher of mathematics
Also to find among the faculty
Roberta Stevenson who teaches aerobatics.

Bill Dunn and Maurice Spurgeon are with a famous circus
Now if you please,
And float through the air
On the flying trapeze.

Johnny Horshman, the little old flirt,
Got a girl from the eighth grade
And does she ever,
Make him give her aid.

Mannie Martin, comedian of our play
On the screen has achieved recognition,
And Jack Hoeflerlin, with his plastic work today
Has become a very noted martision.

Phyllis Haring is now stenographer for the Firm of Brown and Mill,
I remember her well in school days,
In typing she had skill.

Bethel Spriggs has managed a way,
To get all of Ralph Strain's pay.
Betty Yeoman a new name will obtain,
If HE will consent to give her his name.

Roba Yeoman has a shop on 42nd Street
Where she gives finger waves which are very neat.
While Vera Williams helps to raise wheat
With the boy who can't be beat.

And now she is authoress equal to Zane Grey.

I remember her very well
As a classmate of mine.

Who now is a wealthy landowner of renown.

FOOTBALL VICTORIES OF 1941

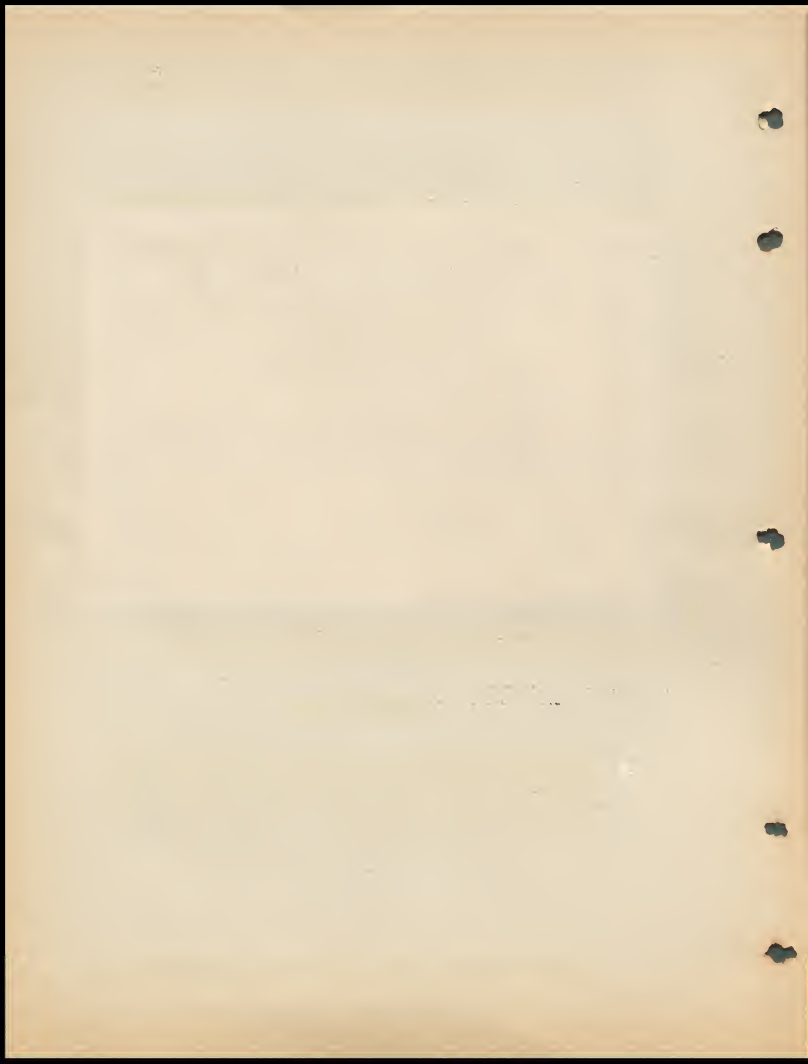

Through slush and rain, fair weather and foul, W. H. S. Red Devils of 1941 fought their way to five victories, while suffering but three defeats. The Red Devils scored 1577 points while their opponents scored 169 points. They won second place in the Kankakee Valley Conference, losing only to the undefeated Mt. Ayr team in conference play. For the second straight year they defeated the veteran Know team, this year by a 22-12 score. Two of the defeats, at Chesterton and Kentland, were sustained in night game played in a downpour of rain. All games were hard fought and brought no complaint from our third six-man football squad.

Six of the major letter winner were seniors; Booton Whitaker, Joe Setnor, Harry and John Bierna, Louis Sayne, and Don Olson. Underclassmen earning letters include; Orville Rowe, Wayne Bennett, Charles Perogrine. Others seeing action on the varsity squad were Allen Frybort, Calvin Ellis, Norman Wilmington, Bill Longstroth, Don Karch, James Spriggs, Winifred Strain, Art Howard, Ed Burke, and Ramey Sayers.

The freshmen played two football games, losing both to Fair Oaks. Freshmen who played on this squad were; Ed Burke, Paul Karch, Warren Myers, Art Howard, Ramey Sayers, Boyd Myers, and Warren Roberts.

BASKETBALL VICTORIES OF '41-'42

The W. H. S. Red Devils completed a very successful season with 15 wins and 3 losses in regularly scheduled games, averaging 37 points to 30 for their opponents. Probably their major achievement during the season was a 38 to 35 victory string included wins over twelve different teams. Of the three teams to whom they lost in scheduled games, they avenged Mt. Ayr three times to gain revenge. They avenged DeMotte's double overtime upset with a decisive victory in the return game; but could not avenger Pulaski's one point win due to the fact that there was no return game.

Those who played on the first team were: Harry and John Bierna, Bill Longstroth, John Herberman, Alex Hanewich, Junior Whitaker, and Joo Setnor. Harry Bierna shot a percentage of .597 in free throws, and will have his name engraved on the trophy as this year's free throw champion. Substitutes were: George Lowery, Norman Wilmington, Allen Frybort, Paul Myers, and Ivan Potts. Those five along with Art Howard, Donnie Hoehn, Malcolm King, Orville Rowe, Ramoy Salyers, and Paul Karch, played on the second team and won the conference trophy for the second consecutive year. All together the "B" team lost only two games, one to San Pierre and one to DeMotte. The record of the first team is as follows:

Nov. 14	San Pierre	28	23

TOURNEY VICTORIES 1941-1942

KANKAKEE VALLEY TOURNAMENT At Wheatfield Dec. 4-6, '41.

Teams Entered: La Crosse, Center of Knox, Tefft, Mt Ayr, San Pierre, DeMotto, Fair Oaks, and Wheatfield.

Our Red Devils met unexpected pressure when they encountered Fair Oaks in their first game of the tourney, but they went ahead to win by a score of 30 to 26. This brought them to the semi-finals against San Pierre has previously upset DeMotto and were expected to be plenty tough. Our Red Devils took the situation well in hand and trounced San Pierre 46-26. They met Mt Ayr in the finals. Mt. Ayr had eliminated Tefft and La Crosse in reaching the finals and fully expected to crush Wheatfield. However, when the game ended, Wheatfield had won 41-19 and had added a second K. V. basketball championship to its list of victories.

BLIND TOURNEY At DeMotto January 10, 1942

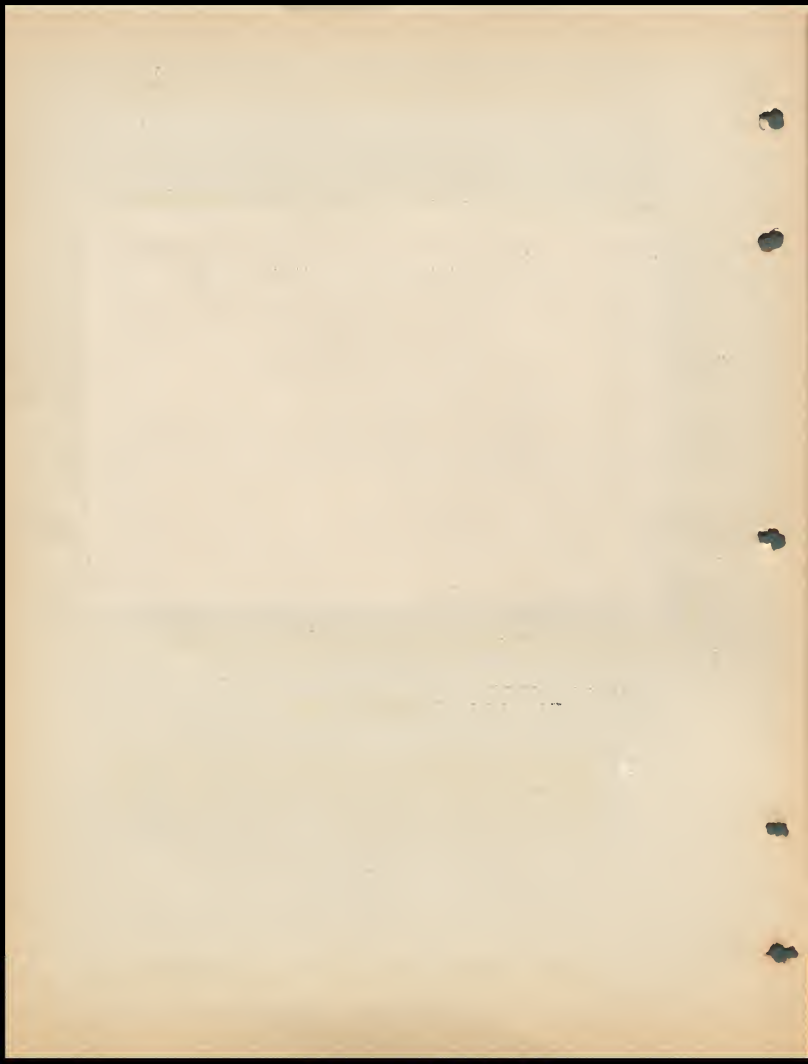

Teams Entered: Mt. Ayr, Fair Oaks, DeMotto, Wheatfield

Overconfidence and an inspired Fair Oaks team spoiled defeat to our Red Devils at the Blind tourney. Fair Oaks upset the KVT champs 35-31. DeMotto upset Mt. Ayr and won the trophy by defeating Fair Oaks. Wheatfield won the consolation game over Mt. Ayr, 36-31.

SECTIONAL TOURNEY At Morocco, March 5, 6, 7, 1942.

Teams entered; Remington, Brook, Morocco, Kentland, Mt. Ayr, Goodland, Fair Oaks, Tefft, De Motto, Russelaar, and Wheatfield.

The tourney jinx pursued the W. H. S. Red Devils in the sectional for, in their opening game, Mt. Ayr, whom they defeated three times, eked out a 31-30 upset over the Devils. Wheatfield was rated as a likely winner of the tourney, but met an inspired Mt. Ayr team who refused to be licked. Mt. Ayr went to the finals but was beaten by the well balanced Brook team.

TRACK VICTORIES OF 1941

Coach Tom MacOwan developed a well balanced squad of trackmen which he directed to an unbeaten, untied, and championship season in the spring of 1941. The three scheduled meets were a convincing prelude to the smashing victory scored in winning the Kankakee Valley Track Meet. Wheatfield scored in every event in the K. V. Meet.

Summary of the 1941 season:

April 1----	DeMotto-----	42-----	W. H. S. ----	49
	Three Way Meet
April 4----	Mt. Ayr-----	44--	Fair Oaks-38-	WHS-51

	Fair Oaks----	28 $\frac{1}{2}$ ----	Tofft-----	16
			W. H. S.-----	51-2/3

On the 1941 squad were five seniors graduating in 1941; James Longstreth, Miko Sysock, Bill Yoeman Arthur Karch, and Clem East. Three others withdrew from school; Steve Shimko, Calvin Pettit, and Winifred Strain. Joe Setnor, Don Karch, Booten Whitaker Alex Hanowich, Orville Rowe, Charles Peregrine, Wayne Bennett, and Calvin Ellis are other members of the 1941 squad who are carrying on this spring. Several under classmen are showing real promise which means Wheatfield should have a powerful track and field squad again this spring.

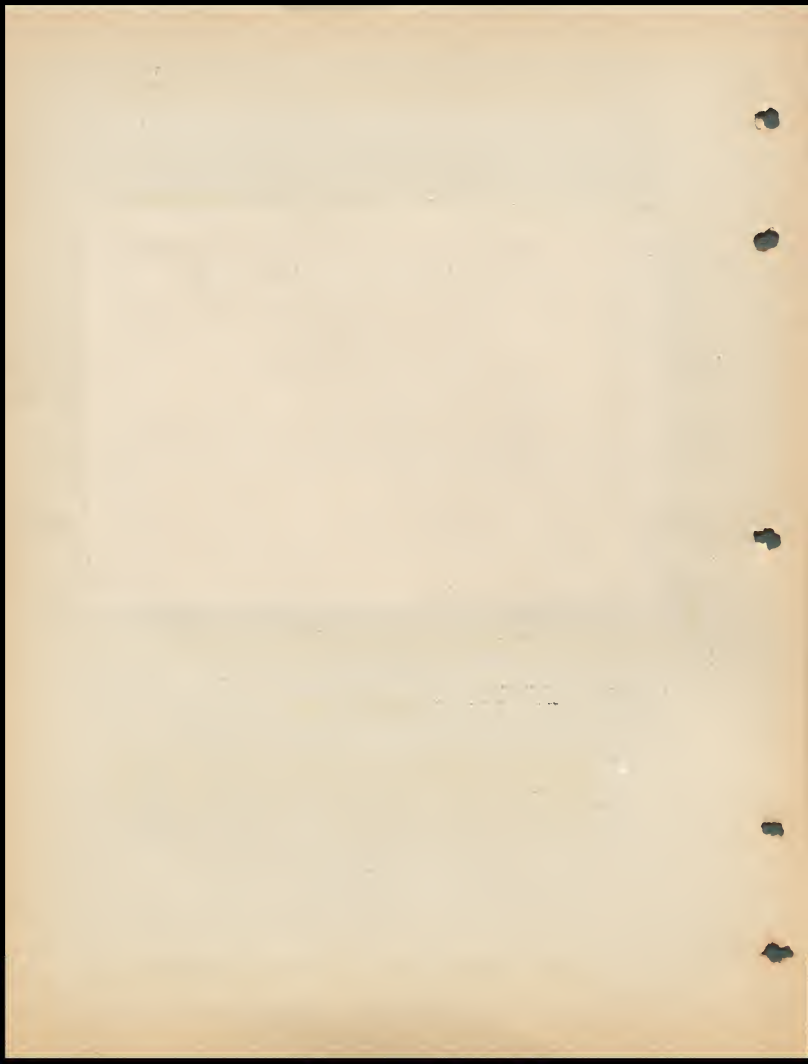

COMMUNITY PARTAKES NEW LIGHTED RECREATION FIELD

Through the efforts of the whole community, by their contributions and the work of many of our citizens, in particular, the new lighted recreational field was completed in the fall of '41. The field was first used in the Donette game, September 26, and the lights proved very effective. After this, grid games with Fair Oaks and H. Wyr were held on the new lighted field.

The new lights cost more than 400. All of this money was raised through donations. Those who aided in collecting the donations were Jewell McElroy, Edward Jensen, Carroll Pieter, Floyd Clark, Don Pettit, Corraline Wilmer, and Mr. Shafer. Several others, including the Northern Indiana Public Service Co., and the County Highway System, aided in reducing the final cost, by spending many hours in working on the new lighted field.

It is expected that the new lighted field will be used for recreation of the kind of softball this summer. All appreciate the work of the whole community, together in their efforts to light the field and expect to make great use of it this summer and in the years to come.

the polymerization of vinyl monomers. The results are summarized in Table I.

The first two columns of Table I show the monomer and the polymerization conditions. The third column shows the polymerization rate, R_p , and the fourth column shows the polymerization degree, P_n .

The polymerization rate, R_p , is defined as the rate of change of the monomer concentration, $[M]$, with respect to time, t , and is given by the equation:

$$R_p = -\frac{d[M]}{dt} \quad (1)$$

The polymerization degree, P_n , is defined as the ratio of the polymer concentration, $[P]$, to the monomer concentration, $[M]$, and is given by the equation:

$$P_n = \frac{[P]}{[M]} \quad (2)$$

The polymerization rate, R_p , and the polymerization degree, P_n , are both functions of the monomer concentration, $[M]$, and the temperature, T .

The polymerization rate, R_p , is a function of the monomer concentration, $[M]$, and the temperature, T , and is given by the equation:

$$R_p = k_p [M]^n \quad (3)$$

The polymerization degree, P_n , is a function of the monomer concentration, $[M]$, and the temperature, T , and is given by the equation:

$$P_n = \frac{k_p}{k_t} [M]^{n-1} \quad (4)$$

The polymerization rate, R_p , and the polymerization degree, P_n , are both functions of the monomer concentration, $[M]$, and the temperature, T , and are given by the equations:

Boy's 4-H Club

The boy's 4-H Club was organized for 1941 with E. E. Clanin as adult leader. The officers elected were as follows: James Longstreth, President; Ray Bagnall, Vice President; John Hershman, Secretary; Eunice Bowen, Treasurer; Arthur Grube, Critic and Song Leader; and Vance Williams, Reporter. Eight meetings were held during the year. An all county trip was taken to Chicago where members visited the International Harvester Co. plant and attended the Boston-White Sox ball game.

There was a joint social meeting with the girls club at which games and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Mr. Harmon replaced Mr. Clanin as adult leader July 1. Twenty members completed the projects with flying colors, many of which placed first in the Jasper County fair and Ray Bagnall placed fourth at the State Fair with his grand champion steer.

Girls 4-H Club

The Girls 4-H Club of last summer was divided into two groups, the juniors and the seniors. The projects taken were junior leadership, clothing, canning, food preparation, and baking.

Mrs. Ed. Longstroth was the leader of the Junior 4-H Club which consisted of sixteen members. Officers were as follows: President, Dorothy Hoch; Vice-President, Betty Sayne; Secretary-Treasurer, Rosemary Longstroth; Reporter, Dorothy Jones; Receptionist, Helen Hoch. The club took a trip to Chicago.

Several members completed and won awards at the county fair. Some sent projects to the state fair.

The 4-H Club for next year will be organized at the end of this term and will be under the leadership of Mrs. Blocker.

CORN SHOW

Wheatfield High School ventured into a new class of activities, by holding the first Annual Northern Jasper County Corn Show, which proved to be a great success. The home economics department served the Corn Show banquet to more than one hundred persons. A jamboree followed, with Bob Smith of WGN, topping the attraction.

The prizes were distributed far and wide, with James Lile was crowned corn king, with Ray Bagnall, Art Williamson, Harold Miller, Clarence Duttlinger, Lovell Woolver, Paul Miller, Milton De Vries, Alfred Duggelby, Grant Yeoman, and Floyd Clarke, winning firsts in the different divisions and classes.

CORN HUSKING CONTEST

During the year, one of the senior boys, Joe Setnor, was fortunate in winning the district corn husking contest. This was the second consecutive year that he had accomplished this feat.

He then represented this district in the state meet, where he placed seventh among the better of corn huskers in the state of Indiana. Joe netted 793 pounds in forty minutes. The three best in the state were Jack McCoy of Moorland, Indiana, with 912 pounds; John Doerstler of Hagerstown, Indiana, with 846 pounds; and Lewis Robbins of Lynn, Indiana with 830 pounds.

An election was held in the upper six grades of high school to select the victory boy and the victory girl of Wheatfield High School. The selection was based on personality, winning smile, a pleasing voice, poppy, best sport, appearance, a pleasing smile, neatness in dress, good posture, handsomeness, talents in scholarship, in activities, in music or other artistic fields and in the art of winning friends.

The four receiving the most votes out of the one hundred twenty-five pupils in the high school were, Helen Gulbransen and Helen Hoehn, who were declared the victory girls, and John Horshman and Ray Bagnall, who were declared the victory boys of Wheatfield High School.

STUDENT SENATE

In 1937 the first attempt at student government in Wheatfield High School was made with the adoption of a constitution for the student body and the organization of a student senate. The senate consists of two persons elected by each of the upper six grades. From its members, it chooses a president, vice-president, and a secretary-treasure for the student body. Donald Olsen has served as president, George Lowery as vice-president, and Freda Horshman as secretary-treasure this year. Mr. Laird has served as sponsor and advisor of the senate since its organization in 1937.

The senate has sponsored several assembly programs this year, the list including the following programs: "Mr. Willett in a Bazaar in India", "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde", Eddie Decoma, and Mr. Marshall. It has sold emblems and badges and taken an active part in all school activities. It has managed the flower fund for the school; selects the awards for recognition day and helps to finance the purchase of them. These are but a few of the projects that the 1941-1942 senate has sponsored or taken an active part in helping to accomplish.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The annual Christmas Program was held on December 22. The grades presented Christmas poems, songs, characteristics, and the arrival of Santa Claus. A Christmas pageant was depicted by the high school. The pageant being associated with choral singing and dramatizations.

The band made its first appearance as a whole under the leadership of Mr. Weinhorst at the program, performing exceedingly well after only four months of organization.

MUSIC FESTIVAL

The music festival was held at the St. Joseph College, Fieldhouse in Rensselaer on Friday, the tenth of April. This annual event included the participation of more than ten hundred students from the various schools throughout Jasper County.

The festival this year was staged on a much larger scale. Dr. Malan, State Superintendent of Public Instruction of Indiana and the Chairman of the Moral Division of the Civilian Defence Council of Indiana, acted as master of ceremonies.

First of the two-fold purpose of the music festival was to place greater stress on the music and the related arts, and the second purpose was to arouse and build morale.

An addition this year was the verse choir by which was presented "Our Heritage", most effectively portrayed from the time of the Indians to the present day.

Westfield High School students staged the Indian pageantry, Tefft High School, pioneer scene, Remington High School, the colonial period and the Fair Oaks High School, presented "Ballad for the Americans".

The pageantry, music and choral reading were under the direction of the physical education, the English and the music departments, which in our school were led by Mrs. Schooler, Mrs. Blocker, Miss Finkham, Miss Brown, and Mr. Weinhorst.

Westfield High School students participated in the beginning band, grade and high school choruses, pageantry, and the verse choir.

The unusual lighting effects and the colorful costumes of the participants made a most effective background for this panorama of American History, which was exhibited before a capacity crowd.

HONOR STUDENTS

The greatest honor in school should be granted to those who have won their victories in scholarship. Wheatfield High School has for the past few years honored those students who have been able to make all "A" and "B" grades by presenting them with "Honor Society" pins on recognition day. Those who have been on four of the five honor rolls this year will receive "Honor Society" pins are Eileen Kingman, eighth; Margaret McGovern, senior; Bethel Spriggs, senior; Elsie Martin, senior; John Hershman, senior; Helen Hoch, sophomore; Paul Karch, freshman; Catherine Risner, freshman; Jane Hisch, freshman; Donaloe Stembel, freshman; Joyce Stembel, freshman; Edna Lee, eighth; Irene Lee, eighth; and Jack Faust, eighth.

WHEATFIELD ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Wheatfield Alumni Association consists of three hundred and fifteen members. The Alumni roll begins in 1910, the year Wheatfield High School was started. Every year at the close of school the association holds its annual meeting, which in recent years consists of a banquet and a dance. This is always held the Saturday night before Mother's Day. The old alumni renew past friendships and the new ones are introduced into the association at the annual banquet.

The 1941 alumni banquet and dance was planned by last year's officers who were: president, Norman Holliday; vice president, Paul Pinter; and secretary, Mary Steele. John Blue, master of ceremonies at the banquet, introduced each member of the 1941 graduating class to the alumni. Each responded by giving a brief speech. A dance followed the banquet.

The banquet this year will be held on the same date, Saturday night before Mother's Day. The officers this year are Art Blue, president; Bernard Hohner, vice president and Eleanor Strader, secretary. Plans are now being made for this year's banquet.
